

LOAVES & FISHES CENTERS
The Meals-On-Wheels People

2011 Annual Report

Our Vision

No senior will go hungry or experience social isolation.

Our Mission

The mission of Loaves & Fishes Centers is to enrich the lives of seniors and assist them in maintaining independence by making nutritious food, social contacts and other resources easily accessible. To the extent possible we will also serve disabled and institutionalized individuals. We accomplish this through an organization that is community based, emphasizes volunteer involvement and is financially sound.

Our Values

Integrity: We work in a trustworthy and ethical manner demonstrating honesty and fairness.

Respect: We value the self worth and dignity of individuals and honor their choices.

Inclusion: We are strengthened by diversity of ages, cultures, abilities and ideas.

Creativity: We are innovative and willing to take risk.

Compassion: We treat each individual with care as a member of the Loaves & Fishes family.

Commitment: We demonstrate quality performance and dedication to our mission.

Sheila and Ron Piskorik live in a home that is neat as a pin with table tops so shiny you can see your reflection in them. Amazing, considering Sheila is blind due to a degenerative eye condition. Sheila and Ron have been receiving Meals-On-Wheels for about four years from our Lents Center and the service has been transforming. “Meals-On-Wheels has done so much for me. I can say that with all of my heart,” Sheila said. “What the meals have done for my morale is beyond measure. I can do just about everything without being able to see except cook. It was a great source of anxiety for me. But now my independence is increased tenfold! The volunteer drivers are the most precious people in the world and I can’t imagine what my life would be like without them.”

Jean Wade Society

For those who wish to leave a lasting legacy to Loaves & Fishes Centers, membership in the Jean Wade Society is ideal. Named for our founder, the Jean Wade Society was established as a way to thank a very special group of people—those who include Loaves & Fishes Centers in their future giving and estate plans. We are extremely grateful to each of these members:

Loie Van dines at the Southwest Center three to five days every week. “I’m a widow and cooking for one person is no fun,” she said. “My friend Bill comes to lunch here and told me about it. The food is delicious and the center manager is just marvelous. When I found out they needed help at the registration desk, I volunteered. After nearly 40 years as a teacher and counselor, it’s a pleasure to make a contribution by volunteering.”

Gail Byram was born in Washougal, as were her parents and grandparents. She's well-rooted in this small Clark County town. So when a friend invited her to lunch at the Washougal Center, there were a lot of familiar faces. "The people at this center are like an extended family," she said. "My own family has passed away, so there's a real comfort in the familiarity here. And the food is lovely! On the days I eat here, I know I'm getting a balanced meal and don't have to worry about cooking a big meal at home. And it's affordable."

Adopt-A-Route: Staff from Western Family Foods delivers meals every Wednesday for our Tigard Center. Two people from their team of 12 pick up meals and visit with the seniors on route number six. “It’s a wonderful opportunity for us all to volunteer and give back to the community,” said Tina Bodaghi, pictured above with Vivian on her route. “We have met many new friends and developed wonderful relationships with the seniors on our route.”

The volunteers from Western Family Foods do more than just deliver meals for Zelda on their route. Mike purchases greeting cards for her so she’ll have them available to send to family and friends on special occasions. Tina and Jackie take out her trash and recycling, take her mail to the post office and have helped her replace the battery in her watch.

“Our company’s involvement with Loaves & Fishes Centers is one of the best things we do,” CEO Ron King said. “It’s not only a great team-building activity, it gets the staff invested in helping others in the community.”

John and Nancy Walter volunteer in the kitchen at our Tigard Center every Thursday, prepping salads and sandwiches and helping with dishes. “We’ve become a Thursday family,” Nancy said. “It’s the same crew every week. We’ve always volunteered, so when we retired, we looked for a place that could use our help.” “It’s easy to just sit in front of the TV, but volunteering is a much more productive use of our time,” John said. “Coming to the Tigard Center every week provides us with a great feeling and it helps needy seniors at the same time.”

Corporate partnerships allow us to extend our reach into the community and introduce new audiences to Loaves & Fishes Centers. Alpenrose and Shari's Café teamed up to help us with two different projects this year. The "Your Small Change Makes a Big Difference" campaign centers around pint-sized Milk Carton Coin Banks. Distributed to individuals, businesses, churches, schools and service clubs, the Coin Banks can be filled and returned to any Loaves & Fishes Center or Shari's Café. Thousands of banks were turned in the first six months, resulting in $10,134. During May and June, Shari's donated a portion of every milkshake made with Alpenrose ice cream to create awareness for seniors in need in our community. The "Shake Things Up" promotion brought in $15,000. New Seasons Market raised more than $30,000 for us last year by donating 50¢ from the sale of every loaf of their organic sourdough bread.

Volunteers not only help serve and deliver meals, they work on a variety of committees and taskforces. A large and active committee puts on the annual Summer in September

Jambalaya Festival and Barbecue to benefit our Martin Luther King, Jr. Center. Board member Teletha Benjamin and Committee Member Barbara Caldwell, along with other committee members, prepare hundreds of servings of jambalaya the day before the event.
